12 Days of Christmas

Many of the longer term collectors know about the set of glass mugs that were made with the 12 Days of Christmas decal. Royal bought the mugs, and then put on the decals on the glass. Well, there is a cake plate that Royal also made on the Hostess style cake plate/platter that is also the 12 Days of Christmas that was just brought to my attention recently.

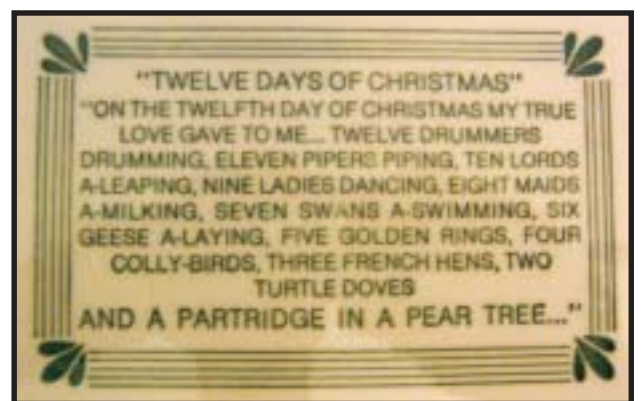

Hostess Platter

Pie Baker

I was also sent pictures of regular plates that have each of the 12 Days of Christmas on them, but I couldn't fit them in this time around. Plenty more to learn about, and plenty more to try to find and add to your collection!!

Also brought to my attention even more recently was a Hostess style pie baker that also comes in the 12 Days of Christmas design. A picture of the back stamp is shown as well.
